Honolulu Trip Adds Incentive To Bond Sales

Art Kloth, manager of the Daly City theatre, announced today that trip to Honolulu, with seven days of glorious fun, has been added to the incentives offered Victory Loan Drive Queen contest candidates.

Inspired by patriotic motives, and a sincere wish to help bring home long-absent friends in the services, the Misses Muriel Mooney, Elsie Cerna, and Helen Green, Daly City's lovely contestants, steped up their efforts to sell bonds this week, in the contest sponsored by the Daly City theatre.

Daly City's Queen will have an opportunity to win an expense-paid trip to Holywood and other rewards, but if she wins the Northern California title, she will also win the Clipper trip to Honolulu, and the chance to compete at Hollywood against other state Victory Loan Queens for the national title and a year's contract with a major motion picture studio.

For every $25 Victory Loan maturity unit sold by a contestant or her associates, one ballot will be issued. The Daly City girl selling the largest value in bonds will be crowned the city's Victory Queen.

The contest, locally, ends December 1; and the last ballot must be in the hands of the contest director by midnight of that date.

Entries are still being received at the manager's office of the Daly City theatre.

Watch the Record for contest news ,and help to "finish to job," fight inflation, and elect your favorite candidate by buying a bond NOW!

FAMOUS U. S. ARMY DIVISIONS

1st CAVALRY DIVISION

THE FIRST UNITED STATES CAVALRY DIVISION was honored by leading the march of the American Occupation Army into Tokyo. This organization, comprising Cavalry units of the United States Army which long ago served under such distinguished commanders as Lieutenant Colonel Robert E. Lee and General George A. Custer, has an outstanding record in this war. It left for the Southwest Pacific in May, 1943, after extensive training covering amphibious operations and the specializing in attack with stealth. It landed in the Admiralty Islands in February, 1944, and within half an hour elements successfully took the Momote Air Strip.

Quoting from the Army Fact Sheet: "One of the wildest battles of the Pacific was fought on Momote Air Strip on March 1. When the reconnaissance force hit the beach the previous evening it had met only minor resistance; the troops were well dug in by night fall. By early next morning the Japs began a fierce counterattack, coming in waves, screaming 'Banzai' and some even singing 'Deep in The Heart of Texas'. Behind the Cavalrymen was the sea. Many Japs carried bayonets on long poles, trying to spear troopers in their foxholes. The Cavalrymen held the strip against great odds. More than a week later the bulk of the Division arrived. Approximately 4,500 Japs were killed in the battle for the Admiralties."

The Division was one of the spearhead units invading Leyte in October, 1944, and for this action won a citation, with subordinate units also cited. The First Cavalry was the first American Division to enter Manila in the liberation campaign starting its dash to the Philippines' capital January 31, 1945, after landing at Lingayen, Luzon, three days previously. Once inside the city, the units split, one speeding to capture and occupy Malacana Palace and the other crashing the walls of Santo Tomas University liberating more than 3,000 Allied civilians.

Component units at the time of its departure overseas were: First Cavalry Brigade, consisting of the 5th and 12th Cavalry Regiments, and the 2nd Cavalry Brigade, of the 7th and 8th Cavalry Regiments, and the 61st, 82nd and 99th Field Artillery Battalions. The oldest regiment is the 5th, organized in 1855 as the 2nd U. S. Cavalry Regiment. The 7th Regiment, organized in 1866, was commanded by Custer at the battle of the Little Big Horn.

Maj. Gen. Verne D. Mudge, wounded February 28, 1945, at Antipolo, Luzon, commanded the Division in the Philippines. Maj. Gen. William Chase, who commanded the 1st Brigade and the 38th Division, is the present commander.

Its shoulder patch is a large shield of Cavalry color, yellow, with black diagonal bar and a thoroughbred horse's head in upper right corner. The bar signifies the Division as first in name and in battle.

DALY CITY SHOWS STARTLING GROWTH IN BUILDING PERMITS

Cold, hard facts, down in black and white, tell an impressive story of the growth of Daly City.

From figures submitted to the Record this week by A. J. Bodien, City Water Department superintendent, it is safe to predict that building permits will easily top the million dollar mark by the first of the year.

The total permits issued in 1941 amounted to $377,605; after Pearl Harbor, Daly City was not alone in feeling the pressure of restrictions and shortages. The total dropped to $26,864, and by 1943 had reached the war-time low of $11,661.

However, things brightened up a bit in 1944, as the records for that year show an increase of $26,284 over the previous year, or a total of $37,945.

During the first 10 months of this current year, all previous records over the five-year war period have been broken with the books showing the breath-taking sum of $949,137 in building permits issued during the period just past.

In preparing for an increasing number of inquiries concerning available property for housing projects locally, Bodien is working on an enlarged map of the incorporated area. The various plots of land open for investigation are shown in white, while industrial, civic, school, and other properties are shown in different colors. It will soon be ready for the public to view.

Victory Bond Sale Moving Too Slowly

Local support of the Victory Loan Drive campaign is bogging down badly, according to the committee for Daly City. There are only two weeks to go in the drive, and the committee members urge residents to make an increased effort to realize the goal of $131,000.

Through November 17, sales of "E" bonds reached $14,500; with a total of all sales through that date of $24,770. That leaves a total of $106,230 yet to be reached at the conclusion of the drive.

Traffic Court Has Light Week

Speeding, and failure to observe signals fere the pitfalls for Daly City drivers during the past few days.

Harry Lee, speeding, fined $10; Leonard Davis, speeding, $7.50; Harry Harrison, speeding, $7.50; Roberta Grover, speeding, $5; failure to observe signals, Alvin Frazier, Mr. Hauswith, Joe Laziro, John Lucas, Claire Kneedy, Joe Abela, Tony Alaga, $2.50 each.

Congressmen Will Witness Atomic Bombing Test

According to advice received this week from Washington, D. C., members of cognizant Congressional committees will be invited to witness the effects of the atomic bomb on naval combat ships. This information was contained in a letter from Secretary of the Navy James V. Forrestal.

Forrestal has given his assurances that every facility will be offered to committees set up to witness the tests, and also that he will be glad to receive their advice and suggestions on the matter.

Colma Sunday School Nursery To Be Organized

The Sunday school at Community Center, Dunks street Colma, is steadily growing in interest and attendance, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Joe Bartholomew and Gertrude M. Harberts.

A new high attendance record was reached at the service last Sunday. A nursery class will be organized at once.

Children and adults living in the community are welcome to attend. Sunday school is from 9:45 to 10:45 a. m. each Sunday.

Rehearsals for the Christmas program will commence on Sunday, November 25.

Christmas Seals Now Being Mailed

Bringing clearly to the public mind the close aproach of the holiday season, the work of sending out the Christmas seals to all the homes in San Mateo county was begun this week.

There will be a total of 36,000 letters placed in the mails; each containing a sheet of 100 seals.

Judge Maxwell McNutt, of the county Superior Court, is heading the committee. Fifty-two women of the Three-Cities and fifteen Girl Scout troops, all voluntary, have given their services in preparing the letters for mailing. There were as many as twenty helpers from some of the Scout troops. The magnitude of the task is shown by the fact that before being ready for the post office each letter with its contents has gone through ten separate handlings, a total of 360,000 for the entire output.

The association president, Joseph Civelli of Hillsborough, states that without the assistance of volunteers the work of the Tuberculosis Association could not have been successfully accomplished. More than 200 women have volunteered their services to the association durin gthe year.

Dr. Lawler Drees Released By Navy

Dr. Lawler Drees, until recently Commander, USNR, was discharged from the Navy on Armistice Day, November 11, and has returned to his practice in Colma.

Dr. Drees spent 23 months overseas, being assigned to medical services in the Solomon Islands, New Zealand, and the New Hebrides. Prior to combat area assignments, he spent six months in the District Medical office, and also considerable time at the U. S. Naval Hospital in San Leandro.

When summoned to active duty, Dr. Drees was planning to expand and improve the facilities of the Junipero Serra Hospital, which he has operated for a number of years. However the war emergency made it necessary for the hospital to be temporarily closed over a period of two years. Then it was maintained as a convalescent home.

Once more a civilian, Drees intends to go ahead with his many plans for accelerated emergency service on a 24-hour basis in Colma, Daly City and adjacent territory.

George McDonald Suffers Attack While Driving

George McDonald, 68 of 147 Willits avenue, retired factory superintendent, suffered a heart attack and died at the wheel of his automobile Monday night.

He was driving with his wife, Margaret, on the Crystal Springs road at the junction of the Skyline boulevard, San Mateo county. The car plunged into an embankment and Mrs. McDonald incurred a fracture of the right leg. She was taken to the Franklin hospital, San Francisco.

See Registrar If You Change Address

Frank M. Jordan, secretary of state, today expressed concern over voting privileges for returning veterans of World War II.

Jordan explained that during the war those in the armed services claimed certain localities as their legal residence, but upon return to civilian life will reside elsewhere.

It will be necessary for those veterans to personally notify the county clerk, or registrar of voters, of change of address, or face loss of voting privileges.

Daly City Band Has Fine Record

George E. Brenner. director of the Daly City Band, reports a number of the members are returning to the band, having recently been released from the armed forces.

Among the returnees are Fred Waterman, Charles Gleisner, Lowell Coy, and George Monti.

By January 1, the membership should number 50 pieces. And any resident of Daly City with former experience is invited to join the organization. Brenner anticipates soon having one of the finest musical aggregations on the entire coast.

The members of the band are anxiously awaiting the construction of a civic auditorium in Daly City, so that they may provide band concerts for the enjoyment of the community; and in order to have a convenient, centralized place of rehearsal.

This splendid organization has functioned in Daly City for eighteen years, and has appeared at many civic celebrations, besides having won many contests in concerts and parades in Northern California.

It is planned for the band to again participate in the annual East and West football classic in Kezar Stadium on New Year's Day, January 1, 1946.

Pistol Records Smashed By Buck At Police Match

Captain Ray Ottoboni announced today that another pistol record was added to the many now held by his crack San Mateo County Sheriff's pistol team, at the Oakland match November 4, when Adolph Buck topped both western and national records.

The all time high of 185, for the Western aggregation ,and the score of 192 which stands as a National record, were both smashed by Buck with his score of 197 out of a possible 200.

This was made in a 20-shot, slow fire, performance with a standard .22 calibre pistol, at 25 yards on the official slow fire target range.

Crocker Lodge Christmas Whist

Crocker Lodge, F&AM, No. 2767, announced this week that the annual Christmas whist party will be held in Masonic temple, 17 Hilcrest drive, on November 23, at 8 p. m.

Proceeds from the party will be used for the purchase of Christmas gifts for members' children at the annual party which will be held sometime in December. There will be the usual movies, and other entertainment, featuring the arrival of Santa Claus and his distribution of the gifts.

Democratic County Committee To Meet

The Democratic County Central Committee announces a meeting scheduled for the night of November 27, in the city hall at San Bruno. All members are urged to attend.

Young People Initiated Into Missions Group

The Young Peoples Foreign Missionary Society of Grace Church of the Nazarene held an initiation for new members, at the home of Mary Lou Smith, 128 Wilson street, on Tuesday evening.

Those accepted as members were Ernest Clayton, Bob Mills, Don Walker, and the hostess, Mary Lou Smith.

Irish Dance On Thanksgiving Eve

The annual ball of the Knights of the Red Branch of San Francisco, will take place this year in Moose Hall, 1621 Market street (near 12th) on Wednesday night, November 21, Thanksgiving eve.

All the Irish organizations of San Francisco and of the neighboring communities have been invited to participate; and a big contingent of the Irish clans of Daly City is expected to join in the fun.

The popular American and Irish dances will be featured during the evening, the music being furnished by the orchestra of Joe Tamony of Donnegal.

Thanksgiving

On this first peacetime Thanksgiving Day in four years we not only express our gratitude to God for our abundant harvests and the ample supply of material things but we give thanks to Him that our prayers for the complete and final success of our war effort have been answered.

Millions of our fighting men who last year at this time were struggling through the cold and rain in Germany or through the heat and mud of the Philippines are home again. Millions more will be here as soon as ships can bring them. A year ago they faced the uncertainties of war. Today they have the opportunities of peace. For this we are thankful.

Yet, on this day we cannot forget that the achievement of our victory was not without immeasurable sacrifice of the lives of our youth. Of these honored dead President Truman declared in his Thanksgiving Day proclamation; "Our thanksgiving has the humility of our deep mourning for them, our vast gratitude to them."

On occasions when each of us may feel the burden of personal problems that seem insurmountable we may ask, "What have I to be thankful for?" We can find the answer by rising above our immediate and purely personal concerns to a broader and more comprehensive view of life.

From this wider outlook we can give thanks that our Nation, though sorely tried in recent years, has escaped the ravages of war; our fields are not pitted from the guns of battle; our homes are untouched by rocket or fire bombs; our children have not lived under the shadow of sudden destruction. We have not suffered from the lack of food or clothing.

Yes, we Americans have many, many things to be thankful for.

Where You Hang Your Hat

It has been said that home is where you hang your hat.

But many Americans, especially returning war veterans and their families, are having great difficulty in finding enough living space to accommodate even a hat.

The housing shortage which has plagued the Nation for the past three or four years is now getting worse, not better. The sharp rise in the marriage and birth rates since 1940, increasing the number and size of families, together with the lack of building materials and the high construction costs which have kept home building at a negligible level, are making housing facilities the scarcest of all necessities in America.

The question is, where are all the housing "have nots" going to live? Many will double up with relatives but that won't solve the problem as a whole, even temporarily. Additional facilities must be found. Property owners with extra rooms in their homes can render a fine public service—and increase their incomes—by renting these rooms.

It is not sufficient that we feel sorry for families or individuals who lack an adequate place to live. We must do all we can to help them. Making all extra living space available to them seems to be the only immediate answer.

It is just as essential to national morale now as it was in wartime for families and individuals to have a place to "hang their hats."

Shop Early!

The season of holly and mistletoe is ushering in a shopping parade which promises to break all records, for this year's national income will again reach into the financial stratosphere.

This Christmas, shoppers are warned more than ever to shop early. Scarcity of goods may make it difficult or impossible for our merchants to secure additional stock in many lines when present supplies are exhausted.

And wise shoppers will not only do their buying early, they will do it at home where they can save precious time and dollars. Gone are the days when the big city held a monopoly on lower prices and variety of goods. With efficient merchandising methods our local merchants have effectively broken one-time monopoly. In so doing, they have rendered a service not only to shoppers, but to the community, for dollars spent at home create jobs, pay taxes, and support civic improvements of every kind.

Our stores stand ready to help us fill our Christmas shopping bag with bargains as fine as any to be seen anywhere. To find Christmas cheer for ourselves, and to spread it among others, let's shop early and shop at home!

"Notes Off the Cuff"

By Phil Smith

I read somewhere . . . .

That any girl who can put on slacks, back up near a mirror and take a good look over her shoulder and then go out on the street with them on has (a) a wow of a figure or (b) bum eyesight!

Nazi war criminals are a jolly bunch of boys who can always get a belly laugh out of a pal's suicide.

"If a war we want to skip, we need to train in statesmanship."

Make Mine Scotch

Did you hear about the good women on the church board in a certain eastern city, who, while attending a meeting in Washington, resolved, in a page-long resolution that: "By one means or another, no atomic bombs must be made anywhere in the world, and they must not be in the possession of any government of any kind." Then the ladies proceeded to drink tea ?.!*.&$'(:?

Calling Western Union

Western Union company announced this week that plans for a $62,000,000 radio relay system, which will link the nation's major cities within the next seven years, and eliminate thousands of miles of poles.

Super high-frequency radio beams will take the place of the present telegraph wires and it will be possible to transmit as many as 1000 messages simultaneously over one beam . . . many more than by wire, it was said.

Too bad, isn't it, that good old WU hasn't investigated some of our neighborhood "back-fence grapevines" . . . on which, further comment seems unnecessary at this time.

I wonder what . . . .

The outcome of the current Palestine-Arabia controversy is going to be. There is a lot to be said on both sides of the question, and a lot is being said. Regardless of where your personal sympathy or political interest may lie, the time for decisive action is fast approaching in the matter. No one will dare retire much longer behind the excuse, "I mind my own business." Sometimes a policy of being "your brother's keeper" pays dividends.

Paging Flash Gordon

General H. H. (Hap) Arnold, chief of the Army Air Forces released a hair-raising statement on the subject of robot weapons of warfare, atomic style, this week.

Said the general, "War may descend upon us by thousands of robots passing unannounced across our shorelines . . . unless we act to prevent them. We should be ready with a weapon of the German V-2 rocket type, having greatly improved range and precision, and launched from great distances. V-2 is ideally suited to deliver atomic explosives, because effective defense against it would prove extremely difficult.

"If defenses which can cope even with such a 3,000 mile per hour projectile are developed, we must be ready to launch such projectiles nearer the target, to give them a shorter time of flight and make them harder to detect and destroy. We must be ready to launch them from unexpected directions."

I want to know, but quick, what can be termed an "unexpected direction" in this day and age?

'Twas Real Theatre

I ambled down to the San Mateo Junior College last Saturday night and had myself a wonderful time watching the students romp through a hilarious production of the famous Broadway hit, "Junior Miss."

A riot of laughs from start to finish, this sparkling comedy was given added polish by the professionally smooth performance of a well-balanced cast. It was really swell, and I feel sincerely sorry for those who missed it for any reason.

If you want real theatre, my advice is to see anything directed by Miss Ada Beverage, of the San Mateo faculty . . . she knows what she's doing.

Mark Insecticides

Don't keep sodium fluoride or other household insecticides where foods are stored. Mark them distinctly to avoid such unhappy mistakes as using insect poison for baking powder, an accident more common than most people realize. When mixing or applying insecticides, take great care to keep ingredients out of the mouth and eyes. Keep the body well covered, and never spray or dust with legs or arms and shoulders bare. Wash face and hands thoroughly after using any insecticide, and carefully wash any clothing on which the poisons have been spilled.

Brazilian History

Brazil's history began in the early 16th century with the country a Portuguese colony. It continued with the colony becoming a kingdom in 1815 and then an empire in 1822. A revolution dethroned the emperor in 1889, and Brazil became a republic. Within the next half century the constitution was changed three times. The first one, made effective in 1891, was virtually nullified by revolution in 1930, and a new constitution was promulgated in 1934. A third constitution was issued in 1937.

Feeder Hotels

Before the war less than 5 per cent of the nation's hotel business was handled by tourist camps. These small establishments are expected to provide much greater competition in postwar years, and some hotel operators, principally in the West and Southwest, have already begun to prepare by buying "outpost inns" to use as "feeders" for their main establishments.

Power Aids Farm Operation

One kilowatt-hour of electricity will pump 1,000 gallons of water from the average farm well. It will milk 30 cows, heat five gallons of water, grind 100 bushels of grain, run a tool grinder for four hours, shell 30 bushels of corn, cool 10 gallons of milk, or cut one ton of ensilage and elevate it into a 30-foot silo.

Gloria Lund, formerly a member of the high seventh grade visited Crocker school on November 12.

The low seventh grade welcomed Joan Tuanjanin, a transferee from Fairmont school, San Francisco.

Jefferson

The first grade enjoyed interesting lantern slides on "Farm Animals," during their social studies program. The slides were discussed and original stories composed.

The sixth grade has made an attractive Thanksgiving border for their room with drawings about the first Thanksgiving.

A welcome letter was received from Mary Louise Steinke, now in Canada visiting her grandmother. She is accompanied by Commander and Mrs. Steinke. Comdr. Steinke has just recently returned from the Pacific war theatre.

Marjorie Mattis, eighth grade student, has resumed her studies at Jefferson after an absence of three and a half weeks. Her classmates are happy to have her with them once more.

Woodrow Wilson

The boys and girls of the sixth grade are reading and reporting about the covered wagons which crossed our continent in the last century.

The students of room 12 enjoyed participating in the decoration of their room in the Thanksgiving motif. Each child colored a large turkey to be mounted; then helped to display them.

In room 8 we are studying about the nervous system. It is very interesting to find out what each part of the brain contributes to the functions of the whole.

Eighth graders in room four have made some interesting star calendars showing the placement of several well-known constellations.

Brazil is the current subject of study for the high fourth grade. We are learning about our good neighbors of that large country. The children have learned that the Amazon river is the largest river in the world and that it closely follows the equator. They found that many vicious animals, snakes and insects live in the basin of this great river.

During their science period the pupils from room five made some excellent maps showing the time belts of the United States. They are finding the chapter entitled "Finding Location and Time," an interesting one.

Children of the high fourth and low fifth saw a very interesting film entitled "Flax to Linen," recently.

Points Reduced For Naval Separation

Reduction of points necessary for separation in the Navy is disclosed in a letter from Secretary James V. Forrestal.

In his letter Secretary Forrestal states that in addition to the reduction of three points on November 1, there will be an additional reduction of 2 points on December 1, and still another of one point on January 1, 1946.

"As of January 1, 1946, a total of 1,539,559 naval personnel will have been made eligible for separation ," says Forrestal's letter. "This represents an increase of 615,039 over the number eligible under the previous point scores. The point scores will continue to be lowered in order to hasten demobilization as rapidly as conditions permit. More than five out of every six persons in the Navy will be released by the end of June, 1946. The Navy's goal is to release by September 1, 1946, all persons entitled to be demobilized and to reduce its size by that date to 58,000 officers and 500,000 enlisted men. This will return approximately 3,000,000 men and women to civilian life."

In normal times Americans waste 125 million pounds of food daily from farm to table.

Bob VanZandt Back From Hollywood Trip

Bob Van Zandt, the popular ace fireman and "spark plug" from No. 1 Firehouse, has just returned from a week's trip down south. During his stay he visited in many places including, Hollywood, Tijuana, and Los Angeles.

No doubt the boys from the firehouse will be learning a great deal about his trip. But whenever the whistle blows at the top of the hill, you can always depend on Bob being right there.

When not fighting fires in Daly City, Bob works for a well-known brewing company. His wife, Verlie Van Zandt, is assistant manager of Keithley's Market here in Daly City.

"Dear Ruth" Is Now Playing At Geary Theatre

"Dear Ruth," outstanding stage comedy hit of the year in New York, presented by Joseph M. Hyman and Bernard Hart, came on the Geary theatre on Monday night, November 19, for a limited engagement. There will be performances every night, including Sunday with matinees on Wednesday, November 21, Saturday, November 24 and, thereafter, on Sundays.

Written by Norman Krasna, author of such pouular talking pictures as "Princess O'Rourke," "Practically Yours," "Bachelor Mother" and "The Devil and Miss Jones," and directed by the celebrated playwright, Moss Hart, "Dear Ruth," has been running in New York since last December and is nearing its 400th performance. At the time of its premiere Walter Winchell wrote: "It will keep audiences laughing for 30 years," while Howard Barnes of the New York Herald-Tribune sind: "Chalk up another hit. It is a darling of a play." "Enchantingly funny," was the verdict of the New York Daily News.

Combining charm and romance with hilarity, "Dear Ruth" tells the story of a young lieutenant on leave who bursts into a Kew Gardens, Long Island home, and announces he is wildly in love with the family's older daughter, Ruth. In turn Ruth never has seen or heard of the soldier. Then they discover the younger sister of the family, Miriam, in a burst of patriotic zeal, has been writing the soldier for two years signing her sister's name. Out of this situation the author has written the funniest comedy of the last decade.

The notable Broadway cast is headed by Philip Ober, the original father of "Junior Miss"; Marjorie Gateson, favorite screen and stage comedienne; Randee Sanford, youthful ingenue; and Russell Hoyt, returning to the stage after three years in pictures. Among the others are such well known artists as Peggy Romano, Houseley Stevens jr., Marilyn Sable, Charles Snyder, Betty Haynes and Terry Little. The setting is by Frederick Fox.

Mail orders are now being received and checks should be made out to the Geary theatre, self- addressed stamped envelopes being enclosed to insure return of tickets.

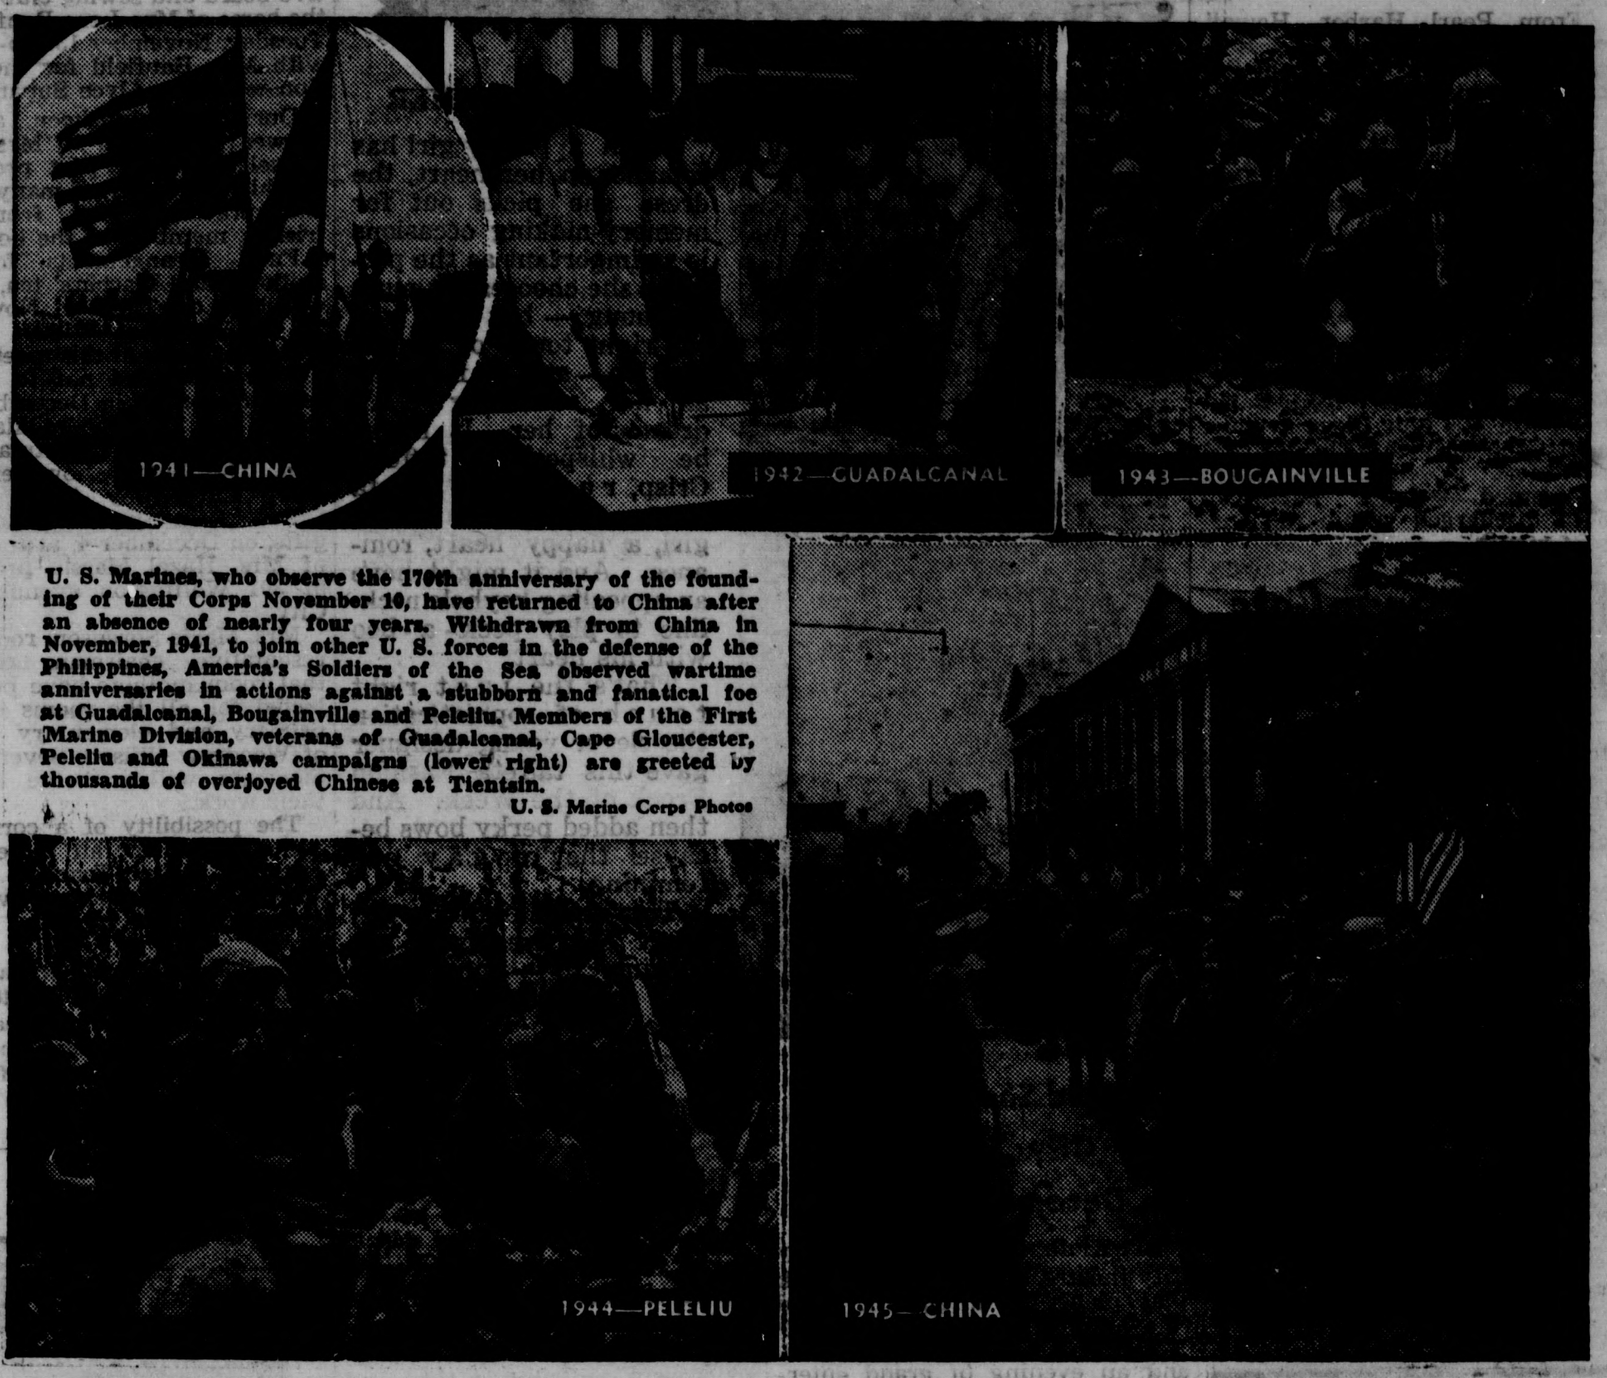
Leathernecks, Back In China, Observe 170th Anniversary of Corps



U. S. Marines, who observe the 170th anniversary of the founding of their Corps November 10, have returned to China after an absence of nearly four years. Withdrawn from China in November, 1941, to join other U. S. forces in the defense of the Philippines, America's Soldiers of the Sea observed wartime anniversaries in actions against a stubborn and fanatical foe at Guadalcanal, Bougainville and Peleliu. Members of the First Marine Division, veterans of Guadalcanal, Cape Gloucester, Peleliu and Okinawa campaigns (lower right) are greeted by thousands of overjoyed Chinese at Tientsin.

Vitamin C

Man is daily dependent upon food for his supply of vitamin C because the human body has little capacity for storing this vitamin which is so necessary for keeping the bones, teeth and blood vessels in good condition.

Covering for Dust Mop

A covering for the dust mop may be made from old material with a draw string. Use it over dust mops during the week, then take it off and wash it. In this way you always have a clean mop and the covering is easier to wash than the mop. It may be treated with an oil made from 1 quart of paraffin, 4 ounces of kerosene, and 8 ounces of vinegar. Soak the covering until it is well penetrated and then dry it out and use.

Cleans Blanket

On a clear windy day hang your blankets across a double line. This will help blow out accumulated dust and raise the nap. Gentle brushing strokes going toward the binding—never across the blanket—will help. using a dry stiff brush. Should the binding become soiled, wash it with a thick, mild soap lather, rubbing it gently. Iron when damp-dry with a cool iron set on "rayon" or a temperature not to exceed 325 degrees.

Egg Temperature

Fresh-laid eggs have a temperature of 106 to 107 degrees. Experiments have shown that fertile eggs will start to germinate if kept at temperatures of 80 to 85 degrees, and that food quality of eggs decreases rapidly unless they are cooled promptly and stored at 65 degrees or less.

Runty Pullets

Small, undersized, runty pullets will not make good layers, according to poultrymen. Cull these poor type birds and sell them for meat.

Pearl Harbor Inquiry

The Congressional investigation of the Pearl Harbor disaster should be neither a witch hunt nor a white wash. It should seek simply to gather the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth about that historic fiasco and then let the facts speak for themselves.

It has become quite apparent that the whole story has not been told through previous investigations. It is also evident that military officials are not anxious to have some of the facts publicized, since they reveal instances of starling incompetence and negligence on the part of those who were responsible for the defense of Pearl Harbor.

It will be much better, however, for all of us, including both political and military officials, if there is a complete airing of all the facts, no matter how embarrassing. Unless this is done false reports and accusations will be repeated indefinitely.

More important, unless all pieces of the puzzle are put together it will not be possible to undertake such changes in our military organization and personnel as are necessary to prevent another "Pearl Harbor" should there be the horror of another war.

The vitriolic charges and counter charges which have been hurled back and forth by investigating congressmen who are on opposite sides of the political fence are not contributing to a clearer public understanding of the tragic affair.

Their duty is to seek neither to persecute nor protect anyone in the course of their inquiry, but to do the job thoroughly and honestly.

For our future safety we cannot afford to continue fighting the battle of Pearl Harbor forever.

Fashion Frock of the Week

YOUNG CHARMER

When a pretty girl has romance in her heart, the dress she picks out for memory-making occasions is as important as the perfume she chooses. It must be young — but with just the right touch of sophistication—and as feminine as her returning G.I.'s dreams of her. It might be whispering taffeta. Crisp, rustling taffeta that whispers of a pretty girl, a happy heart, romance. And it might have an appealing keyhole neckline to play peek-a-boo with his heart.

That's the just right touch of sophistication the clever young designer gave this taffeta Fashion Frock of the Week. And then added perky bows because they're gay and feminine.

That's the kind of a girl every G.I. dreams of returning to — young and gay and hauntingly feminine.

Child Guidance Series Considered

Woodrow Wilson PTA executive board and sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Lena Banfield on Tuesday, November 13. Co-hostess with Mrs. Banfield for the occasion was Mrs Alyce Supanich.

During the luncheon, a baby shower was given to Mrs. Elsie Hesselein, junior past president, at which she received many lovely and practical gifts from her friends, members of the board.

Final arrangements for the mothers' and teachers' tea, which was held on Tuesday, November 20, at Woodrow Wilson school, were also made at this meeting.

It was decided not to hold a regular meeting in December due to the fact that the regular date would fall during Christmas vacation. The board, however, will meet and enjoy their annual Christmas party and exchange of gifts, on December 4, at the home of Mrs. Hazel Marsh, president, at 301 Wellington avenue, Daly City.

Mrs. Marie Sorenson, room representative chairman, reported that room mothers have been selected for all the rooms in both primary and elementary schools of Woodrow Wilson. Several new members will join the unit in their work.

The possibility of a correspondence course for all those interested in Parent-Teacher leadership and child guidance was also discussed at this meeting.

Clean Light Umbrellas

Light-colored umbrellas that are dingy or spotted can be cleaned by holding over the bathtub and going over the outside with a soft brush dipped in thick, lukewarm suds of a mild soap.

Committee Thanks For Co-Operation

Mrs. Ann Eason, Mrs. Mazie Doyle, and Mrs. Margaret Steele, the Servicemen's Club committee, wish to thank all organizations and individuals who have so generously contributed time and energies towards the support of the club during the three years just past.

Without their thoughtful support many club activities would necessarily have been curtailed.

Do you know what's missing from this picture?

If you're waiting for a telephone, what isn't in this picture may be far more important than what you see.

For although we are now getting and installing thousands of new telephone instruments, even more orders for service are being held up (and this may be the case with you) by a shortage of other facilities that take longer to build.

In many places, for example, we will have to build complicated new switchboards before we can provide telephone service . . . in others, we will even have to put up new buildings to house those switchboards.

But we are working full speed ahead, and no matter what the conditions are that are holding up your telephone, you can be certain we are doing everything we can to get to your name on the waiting list just as swiftly as possible.

First Aid Test Now Revised By The Red Cross

Medical authorities from leading hospitals, schools and private practice throughout the nation have reviewed and helped write the new Red Cross First Aid text book which was made available on November 15, at the San Mateo county chapter house, as stated today by Kenneth Thompson, director of First Aid, Water Safety and Accident Prevention services.

Just recently returned from a training conference with the National Red Cross first aid director and associate medical director, Dr. Carl J. Potthoff, and other national officers in San Francisco; Thompson announced that all first aid instructors will be called in the near future for a review of changes in the text book. A new teaching guide to form a pattern of teaching will accompany the revised text book.

Recent statistics showing that more persons were killed in home front accidents during World War II that met death on duty with the U. S. armed forces, have pointed up the significance of first aid instruction, advised Thompson.

The standard first aid course has been shortened to 18 hours. The advanced courses will contain additional information on traction splints, roller bandages and special group needs, and will be given in 12 hours.

The committee on surgery of the Division of Medical Science of the National Research Council aided in revising the text book for the Red Cross, as well as the committee on information of the Division of Medical Sciences and physicians known for expert knowledge in more specific fields.

Review Of Hunting and Fishing In State

The cock pheasant and the elusive quail take the hunting limelight this week in California as the "commence fire" order came to state sportsmen at 10 a. m., Tuesday, November 20.

The pheasant season will run for six days, concluding one-half hour after sunset on November 25. The quail season will continue until one-half hour after sunset December 15, throughout the state, except in Lassen and Modoc counties where, at the request of local sportsmen, the California Fish and Game Commission limited the season to six days to coincide with the pheasant season.

After the opening day pheasants may be hunted from sunrise to one-half hour after sunset. Daily shooting hours for quail throughout the season are 10 a. m. to one-half hour after sunset.

Bag limits for pheasants are two per day, 10 per season. No more than 2 birds may be in possession. Quail limits are 10 per day, 20 per week; only 10 in possession.

Following is a resume of general fish and game conditions throughout the state for the week ending November 10, from reports of wardens of the State Division of Fish and Game:

Alameda—Ducks: fair hunting; mostly sprig and bluebills. A few canvasbacks at week's end. Weather unfavorable.

Amador—A check of the Mokelumne River between San Joaquin County line and Pardee Dam reveals no salmon. Wardens concerned as to where the fish go beyond Woodbridge Dam. Predatory animals on increase between Pine Grove and Cooks station. Fawn crop poor.

Rel Norte—Heavy rains. Salman fishing good in Smith River, poor in Klamath. Steelhead fishing good in Klamath, very few in Smith River to date. Duck hunting fair. Good bear hunting.

El Dorado—An excellent crop of mountain quail is available for this year's hunting season. Valley quail are not plentiful, however more birds are in evidence than there were last season.

Glenn—Between 80,000 to 100,000 ducks are resting at the Sacramento Refuge and shooting has been fair. Much evidence of illegal take of pheasants by duck hunters. Pheasants will not be numerous at the opening of the season.

Humboldt—Duck hunting is not good. Salmon fishing fair until big storm. Now the Eel and Van Duzen rivers are very high, with much debris coming downstream. Some salmon and steelhead are running in the Mad River.

Kern—Duck hunting has been very good on the club lands, with most members getting limits. A few limits have been reported on Buena Vista Lake. Best pheasant hunting at the opening will be in the following districts: Greenfield, Conners Station, Kern Lake, Millux, and around Buena Vista Lake to the Western Water Works. Some quail will be found in the Ten Section field and on the south side of Buena Vista Lake.

San Joaquin—Duck hunting is fair. Pheasants are scarce in all parts of the county. Striped bass fishing is good below Stockton on the San Joaquin River.

San Luis Obispo—Ducks are widely scattered after opening of season. Abalone take is fair; Pismo clams hard to find. Boat fishermen are doing well and shore and pier fishing is fair.

San Mateo—Quail will be very scarce. There is a good increase of brush rabbits over the last few years. Steelhead are being taken in the Pescadero Lagoon.

Santa Clara — General conditions are poor. Very few ducks and pheasants, and the quail are well scattered.

Shasta—There is a good run of salmon in the Sacramento River but they are not striking. Wardens believe cold water release from Shasta Dam has caused this reaction.

Sonoma—Salmon and steelhead now entering Russian River. Quail and pigeons are scarce. Male pheasants released in the Sebastopol lagoon area have dispersed and are rarely seen. Duck hunting is only fair. Some limits have been taken on Drakes Estero; mostly bluebills.

Tulare—Wild pigeons may now be found in moderate numbers but it is doubtful if there will be enough to furnishe good shooting have been released in Bartlett when the season opens. Pheasants Park area.

V.F.W. Sponsors Change In Bill In Congress

In an effort to expedite the sale of surplus materials to war veterans, the Veterans of Foreign Wars have thrown the full weight of its nation-wide membership behind a bill now before Congress to amend the Surplus Property Act and make it possible for veterans to purchase what they want without delay.

Under the terms of the proposed amendment, according to Richard H. Newhall, California Department Commander of the VFW, an honorably discharged war veteran would be permitted to purchase materials needed in business or for personal or family use up to $25,000. The act, as now written, prohibits a veteran from purchase in excess of $2,500.

Newhall said that he had been advised by Omar B. Ketchum, national legislative representative of the VFW in Washington, that the proposed amendment, if enacted, would eliminate the Smaller War Plants Corporation as an intermediary agent for the veteran and would permit him to go direct to where surplus property is being sold and exercise his veteran preference by showing his honorable discharge.

The California VFW chief revealed that complaints from war veterans that they are unable to purchase surplus war materials are increasing daily. Newhall expressed the belief that the proposed amendment to the Surplus Property Act would do much to expedite the sale of automobiles, trucks, tractors and other surplus property items which are eagerly sought by veterans.

OFF THE BLOTTER

Shortly after 7 o'clock on the morning of November 16, Mrs. Puricelli, of the Geneva Bakery, San Pedro road, phoned police stating that the party washing her windows had suddenly collapsed in front of the store.

When officers responded they found Jos Morengo, 129 Willow street, South San Francisco, unconscious. He was taken to the Junipero Serra hospital by Dean Woods, where it was found that he had suffered a heart attack.

J. M. Fields, of 57 Garwood drive, reported on the morning of November 14, that his five-year-old son, Ronald, had been bitten by his pet dog.

The boy was taken to Alemany hospital for first aid treatment, and later was returned to his home. The dog has been impounded where it will be under observation for two weeks to determine its condition.

Louis Anzalone, 979 Cayuga street, San Francisco, was given first aid, at a nearby hospital early in the morning of November 17, for a badly cut lip.

Anzalone stated that he was accosted by an unknown party at the corner of Mission and Hillcrest, and slugged in the mouth.

Hartly R. Apleton, 174 Santa Barbara avenue, parked his truck in front of his house last Friday night. Shortly before 3 a. m. Saturday morning, a car driven by Thomas F. Murry, 119 Santa Barbara avenue, crashed into the truck, causing some damage. Murry did not stop, but proceeded to go home where he retired for the night.

A little later, Apleton, accompanied by police, went to Murry's place in an effort to discuss the matter with him. Mrs. Murry came to the door, and stated that her husband was in bed and that she did not care to disturb him. She signed an agreement to pay for damages to Appleton's truck.

W. J. Hunter, 19, Guadalupe avenue, reported to police that his daughter's coat was stolen from a locker at the Jefferson Union High school last week.

It is a medium-length brown coat, with a green tuxedo collar down the front stitched in red. Police are investigating.

It has been reported locally that a man, representing himself to be K. Parker, is soliciting magazine subscriptions to a San Francisco publication, in this vicinity.

He is described as being 5 ft. 11 in. in height, with blue eyes, black hair, and wearing, when last seen, a checked sport coat and brown trousers.

Anyone seeing this man would do the police department a favor by making an immediate report to headquarters, as the publication disclaims any knowledge of him.

Demand Receipts Says The O.P.A.

Purchasers of any commodity under price control should insist that the seller furnish him with an itemized sales slip, cash register receipt, or some other form of evidence of the price paid.

Otherwise, in the event he has been overcharged, the buyer may find himself at a disadvantage.

A. B. Mueller, district OPA price executive, issued this warning today, pointing out that in many cases the OPA price panels find themselves unable to act on consumer complaints because no tangible evidence of violation exists.

"In handling consumer complaints of the price violations" Mueller said, "the panels are not courts, and their procedure is quite informal. But they cannot act without evidence."

The best evidence of the price paid for any article or commodity is an itemized receipt given by the seller to the buyer. So any one who objects to being overcharged and wishes to support the price regulations should make sure in advance that he will be able to prove any overcharge of which he is the victim. Most stores will give sales slips or some other form of receipt. If your store does not, demand it.

No Ceiling Price For 4-H Poultry

Sales or deliveries of live poultry by members of 4-H Clubs, Future Farmers of America, and other recognized youth organizations became, on November 17, exempt from price control. This new condition applies when such sales or deliveries are made at the time and place of a fair, or exhibition, and have been approved in advance by an OPA district office.

The exemption provision, OPA explains, is the result of a request of youth agricultural societies claiming that, because of ceiling prices, exhibitors of prize poultry have been prevented from receiving premiums and cash awards customarily offered at fairs and other places of exhibition.

Careless Handling

Carelessness in handling livestock causes approximately one-fourth of all farm accidents.

Higher Rentals Must Be Approved

Henry A. Cross, San Francisco district rent executive, today warned Northern California landlords that they are violating OPA regulations when they charge higher rental for increased services or improvements before securing an order from an area rent office permitting the higher rate.

"Tenants commonly complain that their rents have gone up without explanation. Upon checking, we often find that the landlord is charging a higher rental based upon added improvements or increased services to the tenant, but had failed to petition the OPA for permission to raise the rent," Cross stated.

Failure to secure the permitting order before raising the rent makes the landlord liable to treble damage action, Cross pointed out.

NEW B. F. GOODRICH TIRE THAT OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

THIS isn't a guess. A new kind of tire has been developed, and tests show that it outwears prewar passenger car tires.

It is made of a new kind of synthetic rubber developed by B. F. Goodrich—different from the ordinary synthetic rubber in general use by the tire industry. It helps the new tire run cooler—wear better.

The new tire has had more than 2,000 laboratory tests. Taxicab fleets, state police departments and the B. F. Goodrich test fleet have run it 16,800,000 test miles. Not only does it give longer tread wear than prewar tires, but it has more resistance to bruising or damage from accident.

A new, slightly different shaped tread—we call it the "road level" tread—is another feature that means longer wear. Engineers had wished for years to make a tread just slightly flatter. But that more desirable shape always set up strains in the tire body, or "carcass," as it is called. B. F. Goodrich developed an entirely new and stronger cotton cord, designed it into a 35% stronger carcass that stands all these strains and permits the use of the new flatter, longer-wearing tread.

The tread design is new. It is made up of hundreds of skid-resisting curves for quicker stops, surer starts—safer driving.

In a few weeks these new tires will begin to be produced in large volume, but supplies may be limited for quite a while. We have placed our order, and hope to have our shipment shortly. Watch for our announcement. And in the meantime, take good care of the tires you have—make them last until you can replace them with these new, better B. F. Goodrich Silvertowns.
